Dear Colleague:

Today, I sent the attached letter to the Commerce Committee leadership asking that they reject a House provision in the FAA bill that docks the pay of truck drivers by attacking laws that protect their pay during bathroom breaks, lunch breaks, or when they load a truck.

Please consider your own letter opposing this outrageous, anti-safety provision that has nothing to do with the FAA bill. We kept it out of the highway bill, and it has no place in this legislation.

Sincerely,

Barbara Boxer
